

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNEPublished Every Friday at FALLS CITY, NEBRASKABy
ROSS & RAY

Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1904, at the post office at Falls City, Neb., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR
Telephone No. 226.Congressional Convention.

The republicans of the First congressional district of Nebraska are hereby called to meet in convention in the city of Lincoln, Nebraska, at ten o'clock a. m., on March 22, 1904, for the transaction of the following business:

For the nomination of a representative in congress and to select two district delegates and two alternates to the republican national convention to be held in the city of Chicago, Ill., on Tuesday, June 21, 1904, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

The basis of representation to the several counties of the district in said convention, shall be the vote cast for Hon. E. J. Burkett for congress at the regular election held November 4, 1902 on a basis of one delegate for each one hundred votes or major fraction thereof so cast, and one delegate at large for each county, which said apportionment entitles the several counties of the district to the following representation in said convention:

Cass	23
Otoe	20
Nemaha	17
Richardson	23
Pawnee	16
Johnson	14
Lancaster	60
Total	173

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed but the delegates be authorized to cast the full vote of the county represented by them.

By order of the congressional committee. Dated at Lincoln, Neb., February 13, 1904.

E. L. HOLYOKE. T. C. MUNGER,
Secretary. Chairman.

Senatorial Convention.

The republicans of Pawnee and Richardson counties in Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in Pawnee City, Nebraska, on Saturday, April 16, 1904, at 5 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the state senate for the first senatorial district in Nebraska, and to transact such other business as may come before the convention.

The apportionment of delegates will be on a basis of one delegate to each one hundred votes, or major fraction thereof, received by the Hon. C. H. Norris for state senator in 1902, as follows:

Pawnee county	15
Richardson county	22

By order of the senatorial committee February, 22, 1904.

G. A. J. MOSS, JOHN L. CLEAVER,
Pawnee Co. Richardson Co.

The close student of cause and effect can always tell the minute the shoe begins to pinch.

Fred Miller has excellent chances for securing the nomination for secretary of state. If nominated he is certain to be elected and he will make a good officer.

The farmers of western Nebraska are feeling pretty good over the recent snow. It assures the wheat crop and the wheat crop assures prosperity.

Governor Mickey was allowed to select his own delegation from his home county to the state convention. This was a surprise to his enemies and has set them to guessing. When the time comes, Governor Mickey will be renominated without much opposition.

The enemies of Congressman Burkett have been seeking to connect him in some way with the post office scandals. Of course they have failed to do so. Not only has Congressman Burkett proved his official integrity, but he has proved his assailants to be the most miserable of liars.

The decision of the United States supreme court in the Northern Securities merger case will mark an epoch in the history of anti-trust legislation. It will give the government a firmer footing in its future contentions with unlawful monopoly. It will inspire a more wholesome respect for our anti-trust laws and will have a good effect generally.

The mills of the gods grind slowly, but somehow, somewhere the grist of justice must be ground. As we judge so shall we surely be judged. Wrong may prevail for a day, but right shall endure for eternity. When retribution comes we are likely to imagine that we are unjustly punished and wonder why it is so, forgetting all the while that the mills of the gods grind slowly.

A JUST REBUKE.

The action of the republican caucuses held in the three wards of Falls City on Tuesday night was a just rebuke to that element which has done so much to disrupt the party, and so much to further factional strife. The success of the regular republican ticket and the defeat of the Martin-Keim ticket was a splendid expression of the sentiment of the loyal republicans of this city and a crushing blow to the bolters and obstructionists.

While the result would have been the same in any event, the great landslide was doubtless the direct result of the attitude assumed by the Journal. The malicious attack on Mr. Abbey, Mr. Leekins and Mr. Lemmon served to very forcibly call the attention of the republicans to the real motives behind the assault. Here are three men with a record for good citizenship, high character and unquestioned republicanism, that might well be envied by any one of the gang that has assaulted them. It did not sound good to the majority of the republicans to hear these gentlemen maligned

Saturday, April 2

We cordially invite every lady in this city and vicinity to come and see our display of stylish millinery embracing the cream of the season's designs and the most artistic creations.

We carry a complete stock of the higher class and more expensive goods as well as a complete line of the less expensive goods, thus enabling us to meet the demands of any purse.

The hats are trimmed by an experienced milliner. Her work will speak for itself. We shall be glad to show our goods whether you buy or not. We came here to stay and mean business.

MISS HELEN BREBECH

coming as it did from that source. They realized that the Journal is under complete democratic control; that John Martin is official court reporter for a democratic judge and must, in the very nature of things, make good to his chief; they realized that the power of democratic millions dominate the policy of that paper; they realized that A. R. Keim had no intention of being a candidate for state auditor and that his declared candidacy was simply another stumbling block placed in the path of the party. The republicans of this city objected to having their republicanism controlled by long distance telephone from Auburn or by telegraph from California. The opportunity for them to speak came when the ward caucuses were held and the overwhelming defeat of the Martin-Keim ticket and the correspondingly great victory of the regular republican ticket was a stinging rebuke to the democratic spies in the republican ranks and settles as far as Falls City is concerned, the status of the renegades.

TEACHERS.

At the meeting of the Richardson county teachers association held on last Saturday The Tribune was designated as the official organ of the association. The Tribune greatly appreciates this compliment and will earnestly endeavor to prove worthy of the honor. Not only will we give space to the educational department, but we will do all in our power to further any movement tending to the improvement of educational conditions in this county. We want the teachers of Richardson county to feel free to come to this office at any time and to make their wants known.
